

Wendy Joann Slade Molina

June 22, 1965 - August 30, 2020

Wendy Joann Slade Molina “Mom, Nene, Nena” 55 years passed away August 30 2020 unexpectedly. She was preceded in death by her mom Lorena Aguilar, Aunt Dora Gutierrez, Uncle Chris Guerrero, and her high school sweet heart James Duran. She was born June 22nd 1965 in Albuquerque, New Mexico, then moved to SLC Utah and was raised in Central City. She graduated from South High School in SLC in 1983. Our mom, wella wella (grandma), tia, cousin and friend was very good hearted and made friends with anyone and everyone she came across.

“ Mom you’re not only the light within people you’re the light within the sun, you’re a beautiful angel.” -Dae

She loved and dedicated her life to her children, Davina, Dae, Lorena, and Alberto also her grandbabies; Xavior, Mariah, Naiyah, Sincere, James, Nevaeh, and Miklo. She survived by her 4 kids 7 grandbabies, her sister Markadeoro and companion, Alvaro. She worked hard for many years but most recently loved taking and spending time with all her grandbabies. Anyone who knew Wendy knew she was kind, loving, caring and always singing the names of the people that she loved, she loved her music. Wendy was a very strong independent woman. She will forever be loved and truly missed.

“We call your name!”
